

St Josephs Tring, Hertfordshire

St Josephs is situated in the idyllic country town of Tring in Hertfordshire and close to the historic town centre. It is just a short drive from the town of Aylesbury and only a short journey from Berkhamsted. The home offers residential care for the elderly and a specialist environment for individuals who are experiencing living with a dementia.

St Josephs is accredited with Hertfordshire County Council for their high standards in dementia care.

St Josephs is a purpose built care home that has been tastefully furnished and equipped to a very high standard to provide accommodation on three levels. There is lift access to all floors. Residents have a choice of lounge and dining areas. An activities room, treatment room, hair salon, library/quiet lounge and assisted bathrooms have also been incorporated. There is easy access for residents to the landscaped grounds, walkways and courtyards.

All 53 rooms at St Josephs are offered as en-suite and companion rooms are also available. Residents are encouraged to personalise their rooms to create a sense of home from home, familiarity and belonging.

Residents may take meals in a choice of dining areas or if they wish, in the privacy of their own room. Our skilled resident cook prepares an extensive range of appetising home cooked meals, taking into account nutritional balances and any specific dietary requirements or individual preferences. There is always a choice of menu and refreshments and snacks are available throughout the day.

Life at St Josephs is very much home from home and an active lifestyle is encouraged, with friends and relatives always welcome. The activities organiser arranges a varied social calendar of activities and entertainment in groups and on a one to one basis. We ensure that each of our residents receive meaningful occupation tailored to who they are. The home has transport available for trips into the community e.g. supermarket, church, library and social groups. There is a weekly activities programme and monthly entertainment.
